

Manuela Cernat

She is a historian, film critic, essayist, screenwriter. She is an university professor and PhD coordinator at UNATC. She's a scientific researcher for the Institution of History of Arts under the Romanian Academy. She's written prose, religious stories for children, numerous articles for the Romanian and International press. She's translated universal prose and theatre. Volumes published: Filmul si armele (Arms and the Film), Istoria concisă a cinematografului român (A Concise History of the Romanian Cinema), Jean Negulescu – Un român la Hollywood (Jean Negulescu – A Romanian in Hollywood). She's been a reporter at congresses and is a member of international and national television and film juries (Cannes, Berlin, Venice, San Sebastian, New Delhi etc). She is the founding member of the Costinesti Film Festival, founding president of SEECS (South-Eastern European Cinema Schools). She is vice-president of Societe Europeene de Culture (Venice). She is a member of the Writer's Union, the Union of Filmmakers, of FIPRESCI. She is Comandor of the Order of Cultural Merit.